

STUDENTS AND YOUNG ADULTS

PLANS

Easter Fest - Students will prepare the glow eggs, "hide" them, and work in various areas during the event.

Parent Conference - Milesa and I are encouraging all parents to attend.

Softball Team - We have registered a team with Parks and Rec.

Connect Camp - Milesa and I are volunteering during this event. We're also encouraging kids and middle schoolers to participate and high schoolers to volunteer.

Laguna Beach - We're currently gathering interest for a conference at PCB during Labor Day weekend.

Exam Survival Bags - I'm gathering info on our college students and planning to provide a bag of goodies during Exam Week.

Connecting with ESCC - I want to be involved in or start a Bible study on campus.

New Curriculum - We're going to start The Gospel Project for Kids, Students, and Adults.

Family Discipleship Guide - Once it's complete, it'll be available in print and digital.

Website and YouTube - I've updated a lot of our site, but the biggest addition will be our worship services once we switch to YouTube.

MID DEC - NOW

New Chairs - We recently purchased new black, padded, folding chairs for the Student Room. Other improvements to come include logos on the walls and a grand clean out of unused materials.

Packed homeless bags & Care packets for Walk Hard - One of our core values is providing service opportunities for students.

Sermon on the Mount - I'm currently teaching through Jesus's famous sermon at Student Worship on Sun nights.

Sun Mornings - Currently, I'm writing lessons based off the passage preached during the worship services.

Super Bowl Party - We had a great turnout with over 20 students and some of their parents.

Watching ball games - I've been able to watch a few of our student athletes play.

Tues Morning AWAKEN - We've started meeting at Chick-fil-A for breakfast and Bible study.

YA - COLLEGE/CAREER

The Young Adult Sunday morning small group meets in the Library. We are making some updates to the space for aesthetics and comfort.

We're also discussing taking a group to Passion Conference that's held in Atlanta in January.
