BUDDY BENCHES

Our community outreach this month is none other than Hana Hutchison. Hana is a great volunteer in our church throughout the year and a leader at Enterprise High School. While I was in Honduras, Hana reached out to me to explore the possibility of introducing a Buddy Bench through the Friendship Foundation program.. She has a few of these benches across the area elementary schools and asked if she could put one on our playground! The idea behind the buddy bench is that a child can go and sit there to show their friends they need a friend; what a great way to increase the way we love one another! Stay tuned for our next spotlight highlighting another young person in our church who is doing some great things as well!

FMCE MERCY FUND

FMCE, you have continued to do great things through the Mercy Fund over the summer months to help out many families and individuals. On Wednesday nights, seven individuals were provided with meals; temporary housing was provided for nine individuals and two families; four individuals received help with their utility bills; a storm victim received rental assistance; an individual was provided food, while another was provided gas money.

All of our life experiences are different, but for some, as hard as they try to turn their lives around, they are handed one financial or medical blow after another. It becomes overwhelming and hard to see God in all of it. FMCE, you have made an impact on one individual who has been working hard to maintain their faith and change their life despite medical emergencies, losing their home, and transportation failing them. Thank you!

Please continue to prayerfully give to our Mercy Fund so that FMCE can continue to make an impact on the city of Enterprise.

“1st THINGS” Dinner

We had a great turnout for our first “1st Things” Dinner on Sunday, July 27, 2025. We welcomed a group of 37 looking to learn and discover more about FMCE and our church family. Pastor Matt Jordan and Deborah Owens led these individuals as they explored our mission and beliefs, ways to become involved, programs and activities, and worship services. A tour of the FMCE campus was enjoyed by all.

FMCE FINANCE MOMENT

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer and the fun it can bring. During summer, church attendance can be a little lighter as families take time to enjoy time away from school. This past Sunday, I spoke to several friends at church, as some church members are planning to travel out of state to see children and grandchildren, and others are enjoying time off at the beach or the lake. Although the summer is a time for enjoying some time off, the financial needs of the church do not take time off. The church facilities constantly require repairs and renovations, not to mention the cost of cooling the buildings during the summer months is significant. The church is blessed with a wonderful staff that needs to be supported with both our prayers and our finances. The staff is making great plans for activities in the fall, and, believe it or not, it won't be long before plans will begin related to year-end activities around Christmas. Please enjoy your summer, but also remember to make every effort to continue to support the financial needs of our wonderful church family, church staff, and church facilities.

Awakening

A Word from Pastor Matt

If I were to ask you to pray for awakening, what is the first thing on your mind? Is it to wake up in the mornings without caffeine? Is it to awaken to the truth of news sources? Is it to awaken to the role of the Spirit in your life, or to be aware of sin? Awakening can mean many things, and in this newsletter, we won't have a single, definitive answer. Seedbed, a resource provided by Asbury Seminary alongside other conservative Wesleyan communities, emphasizes the necessity of prayer for awakening. On June 30th, our staff met for our annual planning meeting, where we specifically prayed for awakening. Our prayers are for our congregation to be awakened to the life-giving power of the Spirit, for Gospel awareness and conviction in our community, for future leaders to be raised in our church, for current leaders to be developed and disciplined, and for our church to flourish in spiritual maturity. True growth isn't always about the numbers; it's about the profound understanding we gain of the mission Christ has given us to create disciples. Another term for awakening could be revival; to be revived in the Spirit, to walk with Him, and not just speak about Him. To be revived or awakened with a passion for the gospel, like when we first came to know Christ. To be revived or awakened with a passion for the lost and a passion for holiness. To be revived and awakened is and should be our prayer, so we seek for Christ to move. Pray for it, beg for it, and seek it in every facet of your life.

For the Awakening,
Pastor Matt

Pastor Billy's Notes

Would You Consider Joining the Chancel Choir? How About Christmas Choir?

And when the song was raised [by singers with trumpets, cymbals, and other musical instruments] ... the house the Lord was filled with a cloud, so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of the Lord filled the house of God.
(2 Chronicles 5:13-14)

This Scripture shows God's approval and describes the singing of the Levitical choir with its 288 singers (1 Chronicles 25) and 4,000 musicians in all (1 Chronicles 23). Cymbals, harps, and 120 trumpeters accompanied them. As they sang and played, the glory of the Lord was revealed through the music with such power that all other ministry had to stop for a time.

Many scholars date the writing of 1st and 2nd Chronicles around 400 years before Christ. So, we know for certain that at least for 2400 years large vocal choirs, wind instruments, stringed instruments, and percussion instruments have been a very important and necessary part of the worship of God. The choir's role today, as then, is one of worship leadership, whose members are dedicated, give freely of their time and talents, and have joyfully accepted the opportunities provided by the choir for advancing the Kingdom of God. The choir is a leadership group in hymn singing, playing instruments and worship; a priestly group, whose primary purpose is to lead and strengthen worship through singing and playing instruments. The choir is a crusading force, striving always to make worship more beautiful and valid.

The single most important thing we do as a church is to gather as a body of Christ and worship our God. We were created for this! Praise through music, as the above story tells us, is an integral part of that worship. The music ministry is a very important ministry of the church and those who are called to participate have an awesome responsibility.

As we begin this new choir season, we have several openings in the choir. We have openings for sopranos, altos, tenors, and baritones. If you can carry a tune, like to sing, and are willing to commit to Wednesday rehearsals and Sunday worship, we have a place for you. It is not necessary that you be a trained musician or even read music. In the average church choir, normally only a few can read music, and some have never sung in a choir before. Before making a commitment, if you would like to come to a few rehearsals just to see what it would be like, that would be great! Please think and pray about joining our family. We have a great time together! We meet at 6:00pm on Wednesday evenings in the choir room - A 200 (upstairs behind the sanctuary).

We will soon begin rehearsals for Christmas choir. If you would like to join, the rehearsals begin September 3rd. Christmas rehearsals will be each Wednesday at 6pm, and in the beginning and will be 30 minutes in length. As we get closer to performance dates, those rehearsals will increase in length to one and a half hours weekly. You will not have to commit to singing in the choir every Sunday. Childcare will be available for all rehearsals. Performance date for the Christmas program will be December 21st, at 3:00pm and 5:30pm.

Also, we have openings for Hallelujah Singers, Ju"bell"ation Ringers Handbells, Sisters In Song, Saved By Grace, and the Christmas orchestra. Contact me for more information about any of these groups.

We have a special place for you, so come and be a part of this magnificent centuries-old tradition of leading worship through music and praise. If you have any questions please contact me.

"Sing"cerely,

Billy

SALT AND LIGHT AT SCHOOL AND WORK

In Matthew 5:13-16, Jesus calls us to a distinct and vital identity in the world: “You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world.” These verses are more than a call to personal piety—they are a commission to live out our faith boldly and publicly, wherever we find ourselves, including the classroom, the workplace, and every space we have opportunity. Jesus’ metaphor of salt reminds us that our presence should preserve goodness and enhance the environment around us. Salt brings out flavor. In a bland or even bitter world, we are called to bring the flavor of grace, truth, and compassion. In the classroom, that might look like encouraging a struggling fellow student, acting with integrity even when no one is watching, or refusing to participate in gossip or cheating. At work, it might mean doing our jobs with excellence, speaking respectfully, or being the kind of person others can trust and confide in.

But salt also makes people thirsty. When we live lives that reflect Christ—lives of love, peace, humility, and joy—we make others curious. We invite questions. And those questions open doors to share why we live the way we do.

Jesus also says, “You are the light of the world.” Light reveals truth. Light gives hope. Light drives away darkness. The environments we occupy daily are filled with all kinds of darkness: discouragement, selfishness, dishonesty, fear. But one small light changes everything. Whether you’re sitting at a desk in high school or leading a meeting at your job, you have the opportunity to shine the light of Christ. Not with arrogance or superiority, but with love and authenticity.

Jesus emphasizes that we should not hide our light. That’s not always easy. There may be pressure to blend in, to keep our faith private, or to stay silent when something isn’t right. But Jesus says, “Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.” When we live for Him, others see Him.

Let this be your challenge and encouragement: You don’t have to preach a sermon in the break room or pass out tracts in study hall. But you do have to live with purpose. You do have to reflect Jesus in how you speak, serve, and love. Be salt. Be light. And trust that God is using your witness to make an eternal impact.

August 2023

Welcome to our new school year! MDO/SSP Open House is scheduled for Tuesday, August 5th stop by anytime between 11am-1pm to meet your child's teacher. Wednesday, August 6th will be the first day of classes. We are pleased that most of our teachers are returning from last year and welcome those who are new to our staff!

The first two weeks of school will be a time for children to get used to the routine of a new class room and all of our weekly activities. On Tuesday mornings the children ages 2 years - rising 5 year olds attend Chapel in the sanctuary at First Methodist Church Enterprise and hear a Bible story from our church staff members and volunteers who help them recite their monthly Bible verse, lead them in a favorite song, and The Lord's Prayer. We appreciate so much that these dedicated people take time from their busy schedules to help our children grow spiritually and learn about Jesus and the Bible. The Core Knowledge curriculum that we use for 3s and 4s is a kindergarten readiness curriculum that focuses on literacy, stories and nursery rhymes, math, science, understanding time and space, work habits, and social skills. Classes for our younger children use a curriculum with thematic monthly units that introduce music, art, colors and shapes, the alphabet, counting and Bible stories in a loving, supportive environment. We look forward to an exciting new school year!

Hospitality

In a world that increasingly values convenience over connection, the Church is uniquely called to be different. One of the most powerful ways we can live out our faith is through radical ordinary hospitality—a quiet, consistent, yet profoundly transformative practice that reflects the heart of Christ. As I continue to read the book, The Gospel Comes with A House Key, by Rosaria Butterfield, I continue to be amazed at the simple ways we can enrich our hospitality skills using our home and the Church.

The phrase may sound contradictory at first. How can something be both radical and ordinary? Yet this is exactly what the gospel calls us to: a lifestyle of openness and welcome that becomes so deeply woven into our daily lives, it feels natural—even as it challenges cultural norms.

Radical ordinary hospitality is about making room in our lives, schedules, and hearts for others—especially the stranger, the outsider, the lonely, and the forgotten. It's about seeing our homes, not as personal fortresses, but as outposts of God's Kingdom. As it relates to the Church, it is about volunteering to not only do what is needed to sustain the Church and allow it to grow but to also establish a lifestyle where we are prioritizing the Church and considering its needs. It is embracing the place where we worship that allows us to continue to meet the requirements of God's commandments to consider others and to bring God's biblical vision to life in tangible ways. It requires intentionality that is deeply relational and at times will not feel like the norm. It is in the extra time that we spend to help others, not like us, to understand that they belong.

Scripture overflows with the call to hospitality. In Romans 12:13, Paul urges believers to “practice hospitality,” and Hebrews 13:2 reminds us, “Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.” Jesus Himself modeled this in every interaction—welcoming children, sharing meals with sinners, and making room at the table for those the world rejected. We need to nourish the Mary and Martha in each of us.

In today's divided and fast-paced culture, hospitality becomes a form of mission. Many people are starving for community, craving spaces where they are seen and known. When the Church offers that space—not just in Sunday services but in everyday life—it becomes a beacon of hope.

As we move forward as a church, let's ask ourselves: Who is God calling me to welcome? How can I use my home, my time, my resources, to reflect His love? How can I use my time to volunteer to make ordinary radical hospitality the norm?

Consider starting small—invite a new church member over for coffee, find a need in the church and volunteer, or greet someone new each Sunday with genuine warmth. Consider answering the call to volunteer in the areas that you feel are important to facilitate a new normal. Together, we can build a culture of radical ordinary hospitality that transforms lives—ours included. Let's be known as a church where no one feels like a stranger for long. Please let me know how I can facilitate your journey.

In His Service,

Deborah

FMCE Hospitality Coordinator

Respite Ministry

at First Methodist Church Enterprise
Where Your Loved Ones Are Loved

There is a new ministry on the horizon in Enterprise, AL. Respite Ministry is designed to serve our participants (our friends) and their caregivers. Caregivers for those with early to moderate Alzheimer's or dementia need a few hours break from their 24/7 caregiver duties. The joyful discovery is that our friends with dementia thrive in this environment of acceptance and love. They look forward to coming back to where the "happy people" are.

We will be there to provide positive social interaction, light exercise, food, music, games, and much more for our friends. There is flexibility in your choice of volunteer hours. You're invited to join us! You will be greatly blessed.

Jean Johnson, Acting Director, 334-406-7964

Respite Ministry Training Date: Saturday, August 23, 2025, 9 am - 2 pm, Fellowship Hall (lunch provided)

If you cannot volunteer in person, another way to help is to go to <https://www.amazon.com/registries/gl/owner-view/2YKAKQXAL2JPG> for Respite Ministry at First Methodist Church Enterprise.

ENTERPRISE CELEBRATE RECOVERY

Step Studies Opening Soon!

We have mentioned Celebrate Recovery step studies in this newsletter from time to time. Currently, there is an open invitation to any members of the FMCE congregation who may be interested in an opportunity for spiritual growth. One does not have to attend CR or be prepared to volunteer at CR to reap the benefits of this small group experience.

We have both men's and women's CR step studies opening early this fall. The sign-up sheets are on the information table on Tuesday nights, or you may give a CR leader a phone call or text to let us know to add your name to the list. Days and times will not be decided until the step study leader reaches out to all of those signed up to determine when a good meeting time is. We will meet in a classroom at the church.

If you talk with anyone who has attended the small group that we call a step study, that person will more than likely tell you what a difference it has made in his or her life. You will bond with your step study sisters or brothers. The spiritual journey you take together will help you grow closer to God and more knowledgeable of scripture. God wants us to encourage one another and hold each other accountable. A good place to do this is in a CR step study, where all is confidential and the love of God and neighbor is of utmost importance.

Blessings,

Jean Johnson, 334-406-7964
